NATIONAL ACADEMIC ADVISING ASSOCIATION LEADERSHIP RECOMMENDATION

Nomination Deadline: November 2, 2007

NACADA conducts an election each spring for various leadership positions. Please complete the form below if you are interested in being considered for a position. Also, if you know someone you believe would be a good candidate, you may submit his or her name on this form, and the NACADA Executive Office will follow up to determine if he or she is interested and meets the eligibility criteria. Position descriptions and eligibility requirements are on the back of this form.

All nominees will be required to complete a brief personal information form detailing past NACADA involvement, specific accomplishments, and other relevant activities in support of advising. Each final candidate must submit a photo that will be posted to the web with his/her platform information. Based on nominations and acceptances received, the NACADA Board of Directors and Executive Office may solicit additional nominees to assure at least two candidates for each position. The final slate of candidates will be available in late fall 2007 and the election will be conducted online in February 2008. Newly elected leaders take office in October 2008 after the annual conference. Nominations are due no later than November 2, 2007 to the Executive Office.

Position Descriptions

NOTE. Prior experience means "has completed a full term prior to taking office." All candidates must be current General Members of NACADA. Please note that Associate Members (employed outside of nonprofit higher education institutions) are not eligible for elected positions of leadership within the Association.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS—Board members are elected by the general membership and serve to direct the association through development and implementation of the strategic plan and the management of association resources. Board members must have prior experience as a Chair of a Division level sub-unit (region, committee, commission). Board members serve staggered three-year terms. Obligations include attendance at mid-year and Fall Board Meetings and participation in other Board meetings and teleconferences as called by the President.

DIVISION REPRESENTATIVES—Elected Division Representatives direct and lead the sub-units of their Division, and are elected by the Chairs whom they will represent within the Division. They are supported by an additional Division Rep who is appointed by the President, and serves an alternate 2-year term (overlapping vs. concurrent). All Division Reps serve on the NACADA Council. Division Reps must have prior experience as a Chair of a sub-unit within the respective Division. Division Reps attend the meetings of the Division and the Council scheduled around the NACADA Annual Conference, a mid-year Council meeting, and teleconferences. The Regional Division Rep must have previously served a full term as a Region Chair. The Administrative Division Rep must have previously served a full term as a Committee Chair. The Commission & Interest Group Division Rep must have previously served a full term as a Commission Chair.

REGION CHAIRS—Region Chairs are elected by their regional members and represent members of their specific region by bringing concerns of the region to the Division, informing the region of initiatives of the Association, facilitating communication within the region, and coordinating regional activities. Region Chairs attend Division meetings scheduled with the NACADA Annual Conference and lead regional meetings during regional conferences and during the annual conference. Region Chairs must be members of their region for at least one year prior to taking office.

COMMISSION CHAIRS—Commission Chairs are elected by their Commission members and provide leadership for Commission activities in support of the profession by representing the members of that group and their needs and concerns through the Division Reps and communicating with the members throughout the year. Commission Chairs coordinate commission activities and lead Commission meetings during the annual Conference. Candidates must have completed the previous year as a member in the Commission prior to taking office and be a current member in that group.

STANDING COMMITTEE CHAIRS—Standing Committee Chairs are elected by their respective Committee members and provide leadership for Committee activities that focus on Association operations and are advisory to the Board of Directors. Committee Chairs represent the needs and concerns of that committee through the Administrative Division Reps. Committee Chairs coordinate committee activities and lead Committee meetings during the annual Conference. Candidates must have completed a full term as a member of the Committee prior to taking office.

Advising by Design: Planning the Future of Academic Advising on Your Campus Seminar
February 14-15, 2008

Why you should attend:

- Develop a vision for advising on your campus
- Understand national resources that offer student feedback & information about advising
- Learn to connect your plan to the institutional strategic planning process
- Learn how to identify resources & allies in the areas of Institutional Research & Institutional Planning
- Learn how to communicate this information to campus colleagues to generate collaboration & understanding
- Use benchmarking to document the success of your plan

6th Annual
Academic Advising Administrators' Institute
February 17-19, 2008

Why you should attend:

- Develop a clear sense of your academic advising programs, how to effectively administer them, & how your programs should fit within your own institution
- Address issues within your academic advising programs
- Utilize the resources & expertise available to you at the Institute
- Network & learn from administrators from a variety of institutional types & sizes
- Learn to develop an implementation plan for improvement or change on your campus

The Institutes provide intensive, focused uninterrupted time for administrative teams to address a specific issue or concern—something we never get at our home institution! The atmosphere is 110% supportive, from the faculty to other participants. Everyone kept asking whether we were getting what we needed. The resounding answer was "YES!"

Pat Folsom, Asst. Provost of Enrollment Services, University of Iowa

4th Annual
Assessment of Academic Advising Institute
February 20-22, 2008

Why you should attend:

- Learn about assessment's critical elements, purposes, & processes
- Explore strategies for the assessment of academic advising programs
- Establish clear goals & outcomes for assessment of advising & develop assessment measures for them
- Develop an understanding of the cyclical & ongoing nature of assessment
- Network with colleagues from similar institutional types & with other professionals & experts in the fields of advising & assessment
- Develop a comprehensive assessment plan for your campus

The NACADA Assessment Institute proved to be one of the most useful and inspiring conferences I have attended. The break-out groups had dynamic, knowledgeable facilitators, the activities were engaging and practical, and the result for our institution was a fresh approach to advising training that was well-received by our faculty.
