

Best of Region 5

Activities to Encourage Learning -- Ideas for First Year Seminars

Do you ever feel like students look at you like a talking head? What you say may go in one ear and out the other? Instead, let's find new ways to engage our students! Come learn about our top 10 fun, innovative, and interesting activities to use with first year students in the classroom or in workshops – from gaining an understanding of career connections to playing with playdough to make sense of their learning style! Learning can be fun!