Goal #5: Provide practices that allow members to identify and cultivate their long-term professional development and engagement with the association	To increase proposal submissions at the annual and regional conferences	By December 2021, send communication to advising community to remind them of proposal dates and deadlines. Also provide sample topics and general outlines to encourage proposal submissions.	After proposal deadline closes, hope to have minimum of three to five proposal submissions to choose from.	Potential collaboration with members from Training and Development Advising Community	Reach out to specific member of the advising community to write and submit proposal for conferences.	Four proposals submitted for the 2022 Annual Conference, only two were accepted for annual conference.	Future action will be up to the next chair if they want to continue to encourage proposal submissions
Goal #2: Develop innovative and expanded opportunities for professional development that are relevant across the global context of academic advising	To create and produce NACADA Podcast series focused on Advising Student Veterans	Establish Co-Host, Topics, and potential guest by December 2021. Schedule recording sessions to start by January 2022.	Podcast series to air by late January/Early February	Potential Collaboration with Advising Training & Development, Career Advising, Peer Advising and Mentoring, & Transfer Students Advising Communities	Set meetings with Co-host on a weekly basis to meet and discuss podcast topics and timelines.	Goal was not achieved.	Future action is to investigate Podcast for community
