   - The chair needs to collaborate regularly with the steering committee to ensure we are engaging and regularly communicating with membership
   - Subcommittees will need to complete their work and communicate their progress with the chair.
   - Create deadlines for action items to be completed
   - Implement a Zoom check-in meeting once a semester
   - Posting more regularly on facebook, creating a linked in presence and boosting our social media in general
   - Offer PAM community lunch and learn/coffee chats every other month
   - Survey the community membership in summer 2021 regarding the goals, how they were executed, and see if it meets the needs of the membership.
   - Collaborate with Advising Training and Development Community for a panel or other communication
   - Time – I hope I have enough time to do everything in this year’s community goals
   - Community Involvement – If I don’t have active and engaged members/steering committee then goals may not get accomplished. I will do my best to keep the lines of communication open regularly with my Cluster Rep, membership and by posting regularly to social media outlets for feedback from the community.
   - Two webinars were offered for PAM, but no big community meeting.
   - Steering committee met regularly until July.
   - No Facebook posts were made regarding articles and resources.
   - Website was updated to include new steering committee members.
   - Create a regular meeting time with greater PAM community and advertise through listserv and Facebook.
   - Create roles in the steering committee to help with more regular programming.
   - Create a regular time for social events open to the entire PAM community.
   - Create new partnerships with... mentorship, expand our use of technology, and provide professional development opportunities that meet the needs of advisors in the community.
