Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising	Networking with other organizations (NAVPA, NASPA) and the Dept. of Veterans Affairs (DVA)	Establish email contact w/ other constituent organizations that serve military-related students to establish a repository of resources for advisors.	Measurements will be done through updating the community website with valid links to connect to other organizations, and updates through listserv and social media.	National Association of Veterans Program Administrators (NAVPA), NASPA, Dept. of Veterans Affairs	Recruiting Steering Committee Members to assist with this goal.

Provide professional development opportunities that are responsive to the needs of advisors and advising administrators.	Cohost/host 2 online chats related to relevant topics to the AC.	Collaborating with other AC's like Distance Learning to co/host an online chat that benefits both AC's.  Hosting an online chat for our AC on a relevant topic.	Measurements will be conducted via the participation and feedback from both online chats.	Collaboration with other AC's for at least one online chat and possible future online chats.	Recruiting Facilitators for the online chats.  The logistics of organizing the online chats.
Expand the use of innovative technology tools and resources to support the Association	Update the AC informational page on the NACADA website to be more helpful, useful, and relevant to the AC.	Steering Committee will assist in formatting the changes.	Feedback will be requested from the AC members on the relevance and usability of the web page, and needed improvements.	Connect with other veteran services outside of NACADA to build a library of resources and network.	Recruiting steering committee, and analyzing which resources to recommend.
