Friends Network Application

NACADA has an exciting new opportunity to connect with advisors from around the globe. Join the NACADA Friends Network to match with advisors looking for informal means of communicating with other advisors. It is an opportunity to learn about NACADA and advising practices from each other through casual conversations over email, phone, or any means that matched pairs decide upon.

To participate in the NACADA friends network, please provide the below information. The Global Initiatives Committee will match the participants and provide them with each other’s contact information. Matched pairs can connect with each other and exchange ideas or information as they see fit.

Name: ____________________________

Institute: __________________________

Phone: ____________________________

Position/Role: _______________________

Email: ____________________________

City and Country: ___________________

Preferred mode of communication: ________________

How long have you been a NACADA member? ___________________

Top three (3) reasons you would like to pursue NACADA Friends Network:

The GIC will attempt to meet your needs, if no close matches are submitted how would you like to proceed?

__ I am willing to expand my interests in order to find a quicker match

__ I prefer to wait until a closer match is submitted

Return this form via email to chutt@ksu.edu or click here to submit electronically. Deadline is November 1, 2021. Applicants will be contacted when the network matching has been completed.