Please see the reminder message below to schedule your Advising Community's social at annual conference with a deadline of tomorrow, Friday, August 5th! Kind regards,

Each year Advising Community Chairs have the opportunity to list special social events that occur outside the conference schedule. These will be promoted in the NACADA conference app. This is a great way to engage your members in an informal setting to socialize and network. These events are typically held at local eateries as decided upon by the Advising Community Chair near the conference venue (at member cost) or during the last conference breakfast.

If you are planning on having a social event for your Community, please contact Dayna McNary directly at daynak@ksu.edu with the details. Let her know if you need space for the event during the last breakfast. NOTE: You will also need to write a short description of your event, and email this description to Dayna by Friday, August 5. See below for a few descriptions of past social meetings.

Advising First-Year Students Community

The First-Year Students Advising Community invites you to our annual social, Tuesday, October 22 from 7:00-8:30 pm at Guy Fieri's Smokehouse, 434 S 4th St, Louisville, KY 40202. Get a chance to meet with advising colleagues who advocate for, advise, and support first-year students. It is a great opportunity to get to know more about the community and network!

Advising Students with Disabilities Community

Join the Advising Students with Disabilities Community for breakfast on Wednesday, October 23. Bring your coffee and breakfast to our table to network with colleagues interested in talking about ways to support students with disabilities through advising.

We have provided a couple of eateries that are close to the Oregon Convention Center below, but you may want to search for additional places. We want to be certain not to hold these during the Poster Session Breakfast and the ACD Fair & Breakfast since we do not want to compete with these events.

It is highly recommended that you call ahead before planning your social to make sure the restaurant is fully operational and open during the time you wish to hold your social.

August 5, 2022

Hello all – Happy Friday!

I just wanted to make sure to send out a few reminders before we hit the weekend.

1. Advising Community Socials at Annual Conference: The deadline is today! Please send us your AC's social event to be included in the annual conference programming materials. Socials may be sent to dayna@ksu.edu.

2. RSVP to Leadership Events for Annual Conference: If you have not already done so, please complete the RSVP to NACADA's 2022 Annual Leadership Meetings: <https://forms.gle/AbvTV7ySnvvBuDcG8> by Wednesday, August 10th. Thank you to all who have submitted responses, we have about half of our incoming, outgoing, and continuing leaders who have submitted as of this afternoon. A few items to please note when completing the form:
 - a. Community Meetings: These meetings should have all been confirmed in May and the current Chair (even if completing term and listed as outgoing on the RSVP form) should be listed as the presenter in the conference sessions.
 - i. Please remember that it is the current Chair's responsibility to lead their Community Meetings at annual conference. There may be additional presenters added, and if previously communicated, another individual may lead the Community Meeting if the Chair is unable to attend the Annual Conference, but we must know of these changes immediately. If for some reason you have listed on your RSVP form another individual to lead your meeting, and it does not coincide with the presenters that confirmed in May, I will follow up to make sure this is correct. We must have these changes made and finalized no later than August 15th.
 - b. ACD Fair: Current Chairs are also required to attend the ACD Fair. Please let us know as soon as possible if this is not the case, by indicating that on the form or emailing me if your answer on the form has changed.
3. Annual Reports: are due by Monday, August 15th. Please see the ACD July Newsletter for additional information when submitting reports. You may also find more information about the reports expectations and guidelines at the following webpage: <https://nacada.ksu.edu/About-Us/NACADA-Leadership/Advising-Communities-Division/Individual-ACD-Reports.aspx>. If you need a copy of your 2021 Post-Conference Report, you may also find them at the above link; located on the left-hand side menu "Individual ACD Reports" where a PDF version of your report has been uploaded per community. If you prefer the Word Doc version, please let me know and I can send you a copy via email.
 - a. Please also submit the Chair and AC Self-Assessment Rubrics along with your report 😊

Please let me know if you have any questions and have a great weekend!
