Provide professional development opportunities that are responsive to the needs of advisors and advising administrators  Create an inclusive environment within the Association that promotes diversity	Commission members will value the activities organized by the active steering committee	Increase steering committee members from 8 to at least 10  Continue brown bag series and follow through on TED Style talks not accomplished in 2015-2016  Send brownbag links to the listserv after the event	Size of steering committee  Count of events that happened  Feedback ratings on post brownbag and other survey's of participants	We will need contact with the EO Staff – especially Elisa.	The most significant challenge will continue to be to take on tasks in the midst of the busy lives of steering committee members as well as those from whom we solicit leadership for programmatic events

Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising		Openly reflect upon and discuss diversity of presenters, authors and other contributors in events during planning Update information on the website (especially resources pages)	Number of links on the site		Elisa mentioned last year that if we were clear about what we wanted she and a grad were happy to assist.
Create an inclusive environment within the Association that promotes diversity Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising	Bring ethics of advising (and its social justice implications) into the conversation around Theory, Philosophy, and History.	Follow-up the discussion from Annual in Atlanta in one of the first two steering committee meetings Consider a Brownbag on ethics in advising	Did the conversation happen or not? Was contact made with ethics &amp; legal IG?	Ethics &amp; Legal Issues IG Steering committee member from CIGD	Tactfully engaging with this part of our purview with ethics as a branch of Philosophy in a way that doesn't duplicate efforts of other parts of CIGD
