1. Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising	Completion of the Topical Template for Faculty Advising that provides resources that reflect the important role of faculty advising in student success.	Increase the number of proposals, workshops, sessions, and webinars focused on working with the high school to college population. Collect suggestions for topics and resources from the membership	Track the number of sessions accepted at regional and national conferences specific to high school to college advising. Track participation in webinars related to the high school to college advising. Sponsor a session at NACADA 2018 Submit content for the Topical Template to the Executive Office by August 15, 2018.	Reach out to region chairs to find out how many sessions are submitted and/or accepted specific to high school to college advising. Work with CIG leadership to find out how to sponsor session.	Is anyone tracking this kind of information now?

1. Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising	Increase access to resources, tips, suggestions, etc. regarding High School to College Advising	Webpage needs to be re-designed to include an "Idea Corner". Members will send in resources, etc. by the 10 th day of the month.	Idea Corner placed on High School to College Advising webpage.	Research other CIG websites to see how they do this	Creating a committee within the IG that will consistently submit ideas
2. Provide professional development opportunities that are responsive to the needs of the advisor and advising administrators	Increase attendance at meetings – CIG meeting 2017 had 12 participants	Hold open discussion or group lunch/dinner activities at conferences where members can network and discuss ideas (business meeting wasn't long enough – other chances to work together & learn from each other was a priority of the group) Start IG Facebook page	Increased activity within the IG membership and/or listserve and increased attendance at the annual business meeting	Reach out to other chairs with increased activity to see how they approached the issue. (i.e. Erin Donahoe-Rankin)	It will take time to increase interest. Change to Advising Community and electing new chair
