

Global Awards

Graduate Student Annual Conference Scholarship Rubric

Award Criteria	Inadequate  0  Indicator: no evidence is demonstrated	Fair  1  Indicator: some evidence is demonstrated	Proficient  2  Indicator: most evidence is demonstrated; meets expectations	Outstanding  3  Indicator: all evidence is demonstrated; exceeds expectations
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Administrative Materials Complete</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Career Goals Statement</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Participation Statement</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> 2 Letters of Recommendation</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Nominee Resume or Curriculum Vitae</li> </ul>	Incomplete packet. One or more required items is missing from the submission. Application automatically ineligible for further evaluation or consideration.
Letters of Recommendation (2)	Nomination letters are not on letterhead. One of the two letters submitted is not easily identified as written by an instructor in the nominee’s field of study.	Nomination letter offers broad, sweeping statements as qualifications without any specific examples. All other materials have been submitted.	Nomination letters generally outlines candidate’s qualifications. All materials have been submitted and are complete.	Nomination letters specifically outline candidate’s qualifications and professional development goals related to their degree program. All materials have been submitted and are complete.
Annual Conference Participation	Nominee has not listed or described the goals they hope to accomplish by attending Annual Conference.	Nominee briefly describes a few goals that they hope to accomplish by attending Annual Conference, but they are not well developed.	Nominee includes several goals that they hope to accomplish by attending Annual Conference and describes them generally.	Nominee has a well-articulated and descriptive list of goals related directly to attendance at Annual Conference that aligns their specific professional development goals with events at the upcoming Annual Conference.

	Content area of study and career goals	Nominee has no evidence of current study or future advising career goals.	Nominee has some evidence of current study and future interest in advising career goals.	Nominee has documented and sustained evidence of study and interest in advising career goals.	Nominee has documented current study with fully developed evidence and a sustained interest in advising as a career.
	Potential for future involvement in NACADA	Nominee does not mention wanting to be involved in NACADA in future.	Nominee generally states they want to be involved in NACADA in future.	Nominee provides concrete plans for future involvement in NACADA and may include mention of specific committees or types of involvement.	Nominee clearly articulates concrete plans for future involvement in NACADA with specific committees or types of involvement and details how they can personally make a contribution to NACADA.