

Global Awards

International Conference Scholarship Rubric

	Award Criteria Provides an International Conference scholarship to professional advisors interested in global perspectives on advising with at least 2 years of professional advising experience and 50% of their duties in direct advisement to students.	Inadequate 0 Indicator: no evidence is demonstrated	Fair 1 Indicator: some evidence is demonstrated	Proficient 2 Indicator: most evidence is demonstrated; meets expectations	Outstanding 3 Indicator: all evidence is demonstrated; exceeds expectations
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Administrative Materials Complete <input type="checkbox"/> Participation Statement <input type="checkbox"/> 2 Letters of Recommendation <input type="checkbox"/> Nominee Resume or Curriculum Vitae 	Incomplete packet. One or more required items is missing from the submission. Application automatically ineligible for further evaluation or consideration.
	Letters of Recommendation (2)	Nomination letters are not on institutional letterhead. One of the two letters submitted is not easily identified as written by a supervisor.	Nomination letters offer broad, sweeping statements as qualifications without any specific examples from nominee’s participation statement. All other materials have been submitted.	Nomination letters generally outline candidate’s qualifications and address some examples from nominee’s participation statement. All materials have been submitted and are complete.	Nomination letters specifically outline candidate’s qualifications, specifically addresses all examples from nominee’s participation statement including professional development goals related to their attendance at this global event. All materials have been submitted and are complete.

	Resume/Vitae	Resume/Vitae does not limit entries to advising related positions nor does it indicate employment down to the month/year or the percentage of advising-related duties.	Resume/Vitae limits entries to advising-related positions but does not indicate employment down to the month/year or the percentage of advising-related duties.	Resume/Vitae limits entries to advising-related positions and does indicate employment down to the month/year, but does not address the percentage of advising-related duties.	Resume/Vitae clearly articulates advising-related positions with employment down to the month/year and addresses the percentage of advising-related duties.
	International Conference Participation Statement Part a: List and describe the goals you hope to accomplish by attending the International Conference.	Nominee has not listed or described the goals they hope to accomplish by attending this event.	Nominee briefly describes a few goals that they hope to accomplish by attending Annual Conference, but they are not well developed.	Nominee includes several goals that they hope to accomplish by attending the International Conference and some are well developed.	Nominee has a well-articulated and descriptive list of goals related directly to attendance at International Conference that aligns their specific professional development goals with attendance at this event.
	International Conference Participation Statement Part b: In what ways would you like to extend your involvement in NACADA at the international level?	Nominee does not mention wanting to be involved in NACADA.	Nominee generally states they want to be involved.	Nominee provides concrete plans for involvement and may include mention of specific committees or types of involvement.	Nominee clearly articulates concrete plans for future involvement with specific committees or types of involvement and details how they can personally make a contribution to NACADA globally.
	International Conference Participation Statement Part c: Describe your interest in understanding advising across the globe and how you will apply this to your daily work and to your institution as a whole.	Nominee does not mention an interest in understanding advising across the globe or how it would apply to their daily work or institution.	Nominee generally mentions an interest in understanding advising across the globe and how it would apply to their daily work or institution.	Nominee provides several examples of their interest in advising at the global level and how it applies to daily work and their institution as a whole.	Nominee clearly articulates their interest in advising at the global level, including specific examples of how it will apply to their daily work and their institution as a whole.

