Develop innovative and expanded opportunities for professional development that are relevant across the global contexts of academic advising.	Our community will host four coffee chats focused on Appreciative Advising for our community.	Our steering committee will meet monthly to discuss coffee chat topics and organize the marketing of the coffee chats.	We will measure our success through the number of coffee chats delivered and attendance at the events.		We will work closely with the Executive Office to ensure all marketing materials are available in alignment with their timeline.
