The objective of the five community goals listed in column one are to support the Advising Adult Learner Community to connect regularly with each other to share best practices in supporting adult learners, expand our use of technology, and provide processional development opportunities that meet the needs of advisors in the community.

* Survey the community membership in summer 2020 regarding the goals, how they were executed, and seeing if it met the needs of the membership.

 Survey the community membership in summer 2020 regarding the goals, how they were executed, and seeing if it met the needs of the membership.

* Webinar for best practices in supporting adult learners was facilitated in July by community members and our steering committee. I handled communications w/ EO and marketing of the event. I provided guidance to the presenters leading up the webinar.
