Develop innovative and expanded opportunities for professional development that are relevant across the global contexts of academic advising.	Provide a space to increase awareness of and discuss current scholarship on LGBTQA issues throughout the year.	Continue Quarterly Queeries online discussion series with the goal of holding three events during 2022.	Host three online discussions during 2022 with at least twenty participants each.	Collaboration with other advising communities such as the transfer AC to discuss how some issues they discuss may impact LGBTQ students in particular.	Finding a time to maximize participation may be difficult.	1 Quarterly Queeries event was held in February 2021, I'm unsure how many people attended. A few discussions were had about the new LGBTQ Advising book.	Cody Harrison stepped in for Gerda Zinner as Chair in May 2022 and will continue the role as the incoming Chair in October 2022. Goals will be reevaluated and adjusted then. Information on current goals is as up to date as Cody has access to.

Identify and remove barriers to accessibility of all opportunities for engagement and professional growth in the association to foster equity and inclusion for all members.	Promote inclusion and clarity in our mission as well as keeping up with current language by considering a new name for the advising community based on input received at the annual conference.	Hold a vote on remaining the advising community and go through appropriate procedures to change the name in accordance with the wishes of community members.	Hold a vote and initiate name change procedures if necessary.	NA	Getting significant participation from members could be difficult and will likely require multiple notices.	Unknown.	Cody Harrison stepped in for Gerda Zinner as Chair in May 2022 and will continue the role as the incoming Chair in October 2022. Goals will be reevaluated and adjusted then. Information on current goals is as up to date as Cody has access to.
Examine and align the structure and infrastructure of the association to best support advancement of the vision, mission, and strategic goals.	Promote a clean transition in leadership.	Provide opportunities for community membership to learn more about new leadership.	Provide a platform for AC chair candidates to share their goals and visions for the next two years.	NA	Finding a time that could include all candidates in an event could prove tricky.	Unknown.
