

2019 ACD Service Award Winner

EXCLUSIVE

ERIN
DONAHOE-
RANKIN

The ACD Service Award recognizes individuals who have provided outstanding service, leadership, and commitment to a specific Advising Community, Cluster or the Division. Consider nominating a member in spring 2020!

Erin is the Director of Advising for the College of Visual Arts at the University of North Texas in Denton, Texas. She's been actively involved in the ACD since 2010. She's often described by her peers as a visionary. Erin was vital to the success of the transition from the CIGD to the ACD. She contributed on several working groups during the restructure including the Division's election cycle. She is always willing to volunteer her time and expertise.

Below is a list of all Division-related roles she has taken on:

- Theory, Philosophy, and History Steering Committee Member—2010-present
- Liberal Arts Advising Commission Chair—2014-2017
- Liberal Arts Advising Steering Committee Member—2017-present
- ACD Service Award Committee Chair—2018-present
- ACD Cluster Representative—2017-present
- Interim Chair for the Fine Arts Advising Community—2019-present
- ACD 2019 Training Working Group

Erin has also participated in myriad ways outside the ACD. Two key areas are her activities at the regional level, as well as in the Emerging Leaders Program. We are so lucky to have such a knowledgeable, creative, willing and enthusiastic leader in the ACD!

Congratulations and thank you!

TONY LAZAROWICZ

The ACD Service Award recognizes individuals who have provided outstanding service, leadership, and commitment to a specific Advising Community, Cluster or the Division. Consider nominating a member in spring 2020!

Tony is the Associate Director for Academic Advising for the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He has set the bar very high for Chair engagement within the Advising Community on Transfer Students. His peers, both in and outside NACADA, call him an "incredible advocate" and an expert in the field of transfer advising.

Tony has been an active member of NACADA for nearly a decade in various capacities. He has presented extensively at national, regional, and local level conferences. Most recently, Tony presented twice at the 2018 national conference in Phoenix serving as a panelist in, HOT TOPIC: Engaging with Parents at Orientation and co-presented Assisting Transfer Students Using a Dual Lens Approach of Appreciative Advising and Transition Theory. Tony presented other topics at the 2012, 2016, and 2017 annual conferences.

To say that Tony is a tireless advocate for transfer advising is an understatement. His group is creating monthly newsletters, arranging dynamic online discussions, supporting ties with related organizations, preparing steering committee members to be future leaders and much more.

Thanks for all your work and congratulations!
