Strategic Goals * # 2: Provide professional development opportunities that are responsive to the needs of advisors and advising administrators * # 7: Expand the use of innovative technology tools and resources to support the work of the Association * # 1: Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising	* Zoom community meeting twice during the academic year * Monthly post to the Facebook page with articles, resources, etc. * Maintain the community website (Steering Committee) *Facilitate webinar on best practices to support adult learners (Steering Committee)	* Community members need to be engaged, invested, and willing to participate to help the goals listed in the first column occur and have the outcomes happen. * The chair needs to collaborate regularly with the steering committee to ensure we are engaging and regularly communicating with membership	* By implementing a Zoom check-in meeting twice during the academic year * Having post reflected monthly on the Facebook page and having individuals view as well as reply to the post. * Do outreach to the community in February seeking individuals interested in organizing a community social such as lunch together with members from the group	* Partner with the Publication Advisor to post their power point presentation to the Adult Learner Community's Facebook page in hopes to educate community members how write for NACADA.	* Time – I hope I have enough time to do everything in this year's community goals. I am trying to keep a schedule of when certain things should be done and stick with it to stay on track during busy times of year. * COVID19 – Due to COVID19 not everything I had planned for 2019-2020 occurred from my original goals. I am still working through concerns. I am hopeful by collaborating with

 The objective of the five community goals listed in column one are to support the Advising Adult Learner Community to connect regularly with each other to share best practices in supporting adult learners, expand our use of technology, and provide processional development opportunities that meet the needs of advisors in the community.		* Survey the community membership in summer 2020 regarding the goals, how they were executed, and seeing if it met the needs of the membership.		colleagues and using my Rep as a resource I will be successful during my 2nd year as chair of the Adult Learner Community.
