

ABSTRACT:

Get Wise: On the Go is a program designed to help FAU's busy commuter students have an easier and more convenient manner to speak with an academic advisor. This program is largely targeted to meet the needs of commuter students who have difficulty coming to advising during traditional office hours. This program also provides referrals and information to this population for other programs on campus tailored to their needs such as dining halls and tutoring.