

February 2023 Newsletter

Hello NACADA Adult Learners Community,

Welcome to your February newsletter for updates and information.

A Moment to Reflect

What do you love most about working with adult learners? ❤️

Steering Committee Updates

Updates

- We had 35 people attend the Coffee Talks: How to Write a Strong Conference Proposal webinar earlier this month. We hope that leads to more proposals submitted focusing on adult learners. It's not too late - proposal submission deadline is February 23, 11:59pm Central Time!
- The Steering Committee is busy planning upcoming events for later this Spring and Summer, so keep an eye out for future announcements.

Upcoming Adult Learners Advising Community Events

- GPS Collaborative on Adult Learners - These informal discussions founded by the Graduate and Professional Student (GPS) Advising Community focus on many of our students' intersectional identities. If you work with or are interested in graduate/professional students who also identify as adult learners, join us for this monthly conversation. Held the first Wednesday of the month (next meeting on March 1) at 2pm CT (12pm PT / 1pm MT / 3pm ET). To receive the Zoom link, sign up for the GPS Collaborative focused on Adult Learners (three others also available). Co-facilitated by the Adult Learners AC Chair.

Upcoming NACADA Events

- NACADA 2023 Regional Conferences will be held from February through May - registration is now open! For more information, visit the NACADA Region Division website for conference dates and early bird registration deadlines. Preconference workshops and conference schedules will be added as information becomes available.
- NACADA 2023 Annual Conference Call for Proposals is STILL OPEN! The Annual Conference will be held in Orlando, FL, October 4-7. Proposals will be accepted through February 23.
