TRANSFER TUESDAY: MONTHLY NEWS FROM THE ADVISING COMMUNITY ON TRANSFER STUDENTS

APRIL 2023

Welcome to our April newsletter! This is my favorite time of year to work with transfer students. I advise at a community college and it is so much fun to help soon-to-graduates prepare for their next adventure at their four-year college.

As always if you have any suggestions for us, please email Monica Cottrell at cottrellm@moravian.edu. If you know someone who would benefit from joining our community, please forward this message to them. For those of you who are new to the group this month, welcome! We have a lot of ways to engage members and we rely on you to help make this group as robust as possible. Whether it is engaging with our listserv (directions on how to join can be found by clicking here), our Facebook and Twitter accounts, or attending an event, this group is what you make of it.

Looking for a way to be more active in the Transfer Community? Please fill out this interest form to let us know!

This message will include:

- 1) Transfer Talks
- 2) Recent Listserv Threads
- 3) NACADA Annual Conference 2023
- 4) Publication Spotlight - Call for Submissions

Transfer Talks

NISTS 2023 Annual Conference Recap

Thursday, March 23 - 2pm Central | RECAP

Our own steering committee member, Rachel Fulton, led a transfer talk on Thursday, March 23 to discuss how the NISTS Annual Conference went. Rachel provided a recap of the event for those of us who were not able to attend in-person. 18 members of the advising community attended the transfer talk.

April Transfer Talk: Using Data to Support Transfer Students

Thursday, April 20 - 2pm Central | Register Now

Transfer student data may be in short supply on many campuses, but providing data can be a valuable tool when seeking permission or funding for new initiatives. This Transfer Talk will begin with a brief overview of best practices for data collection and usage followed by open discussion and opportunity to ask questions.

May Transfer Talk: Bring Your Own Topic

Thursday, May 18 - 2pm CST | Register Now

This session is designed as an open-ended Bring Your Own Topic (BYOT) conversation. Join us and discuss anything that is on your mind pertaining to advising transfer students!

Recent Listserv Threads

The listserv is a great way to engage with our community asking great questions and sharing research, readings, and promising practices. The listserv has been pretty quiet since our last newsletter - must be the end of term keeping us all in the weeds!

- Inquiry re: Statewide/Regional models of Prior Learning Assessment portability (Apr 11)

As a reminder from NACADA Leadership: Job postings are prohibited on NACADA Listservs. Please make sure to use NACADA's Position & Announcement site instead.

NACADA 2023 Annual Conference

The Call for Proposals for the October 2023 NACADA Annual Conference has closed and reviews are underway! Registration is now open for Reimagine the Magic of Academic Advising in Orlando, Florida from October 4-7! Sign-up by August 16 to take advantage of the early conference fee. Check the conference website to register, and check back often for updates and conference activity information.

Publication Spotlight

We hope you've enjoyed our Publication/Research Spotlights the past few months. Submitting an item for this section of the newsletter is a great way to get involved with the community on your own time, especially if you're unable to make it to virtual or in-person events throughout the year.

If you are interested in contributing to the newsletter in this way, please reach out to rachel.fulton@wright.edu or equimond@ccsnh.edu for more information about parameters and expectations!
