Rhode Island T.F. Green International Airport (PVD)

Only 10 minutes from downtown Providence, Rhode Island T.F. Green International Airport is easily accessible to Boston, Cape Cod and Southeastern New England. Located in nearby Warwick, RI, the airport is a popular alternative to Boston’s Logan Airport.

Rhode Island T.F. Green International Airport offers an average of 100 nonstop daily flights daily via major carriers, with convenient connecting options to the rest of the world. This award-winning airport has been named “4th Best Airport in the United States” in Condé Nast Traveler’s 2022 Readers’ Choice Awards.

The InterLink transportation system offers scheduled rail service from the airport to Providence and Boston. For more information, visit flyri.com or call 888-268-7222.

Boston Logan International Airport (BOS)

Boston Logan International Airport features nonstop air service from more than 100 worldwide destinations. Located less than 50 miles from Providence, Logan offers convenient transportation options from Boston, including bus service pick-up within steps of all five of its airport terminals. Peter Pan’s 10 daily departures leave directly from Logan to downtown Providence, and Amtrak and commuter rail service is readily available from Boston.
