

I have worked in many different educational capacities and foster being a liaison at every opportunity. I understand the importance of being a liaison and would welcome the opportunity to do so for the GA region.