21-DAY RACIAL EQUITY HABIT BUILDING CHALLENGE—KICK OFF MONDAY
JAN 22ND AT 2:30 PM EST

If you are in the field of education, you are someone who enjoys learning. You might also enjoy charts. This challenge will be great for you! For 21 days, do one (or more!) action(s) to further your understanding of power, privilege, supremacy, oppression, and equity, and how this impacts students & families. White privilege has a powerful impact on systemic inequities in education. The resources we will share help shine a light on that issue but also provide some general awareness for your own personal development. This challenge culminates at the R4/R7 Region Conference, Together We Make Advising Magic where we can process our experiences and share the impact of our “a-ha!” moments.
