Biography:
My name is Rachel and I work as an Academic Advisor for the College of Business at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Although I have only been in Nebraska since 2016, I’ve worked as an Academic Advisor across the country in a variety of majors, a few different sized institutions and even within an Athletic Department for the better part of a decade. While each of the student populations have their unique tendencies, many of the overarching issues or concerns have been similar. I’ve reached a place in my career where I feel comfortable in my skill set and want to start giving back to the advising community. I talk to students often about the importance of getting involved and plan experiences for students to work on the essential skills of life (networking, communication, teamwork, organization, etc.). NACADA is a great platform to learn from others while also providing me a place to “practice what I preach.” I’m excited for the possibility of serving as the Nebraska Liaison for NACADA North Central Region VI.
