Exhibitor Guidelines & Information

Guidelines for Use of NACADA Annual Conference Participant List

Purchasers of the conceptual package receive the NACADA Annual Conference participant list of physical mailing addresses for the exhibitor’s one-time use to advertise products or services to registrants two weeks prior to the Annual Conference. The list excludes participants who do not wish to receive mailings or do not want directory information released. Please do not share the NACADA participant list with other individuals or institutions.

NACADA adheres to the CAN-SPAM Act and does not release email addresses of its members or event participants. NACADA discourages the sending of emails by exhibitors as these emails may imply, directly or indirectly, the endorsement of exhibitor products or services by NACADA. The NACADA participant list is the property of NACADA. Exhibitors that abuse any of these guidelines will not be granted the privilege to participate at future NACADA events.

NACADA reserves the right to request and review all exhibitor correspondence sent to participants prior to the mailing and to revise/refuse any content that may reflect a NACADA endorsement of the exhibitors’ products or services.

You may receive scam calls or emails about purchasing NACADA participant lists. Please ignore these scam offers as NACADA does not authorize outside entities to sell participant lists.

If you require additional exhibit representatives above those listed for each package, the price is $430 per person. NACADA may lease any space so forfeited to another Exhibitor and retain all revenues collected.

Should Exhibitor engage in retail sales from Exhibitor’s designated space, Exhibitor shall be responsible for complying with all local and state requirements for a business license and sales tax remittance.

In the interest of the NACADA Annual Conference, the Exhibitor agrees not to extend invitations, call meetings, or otherwise encourage absence of participants, exhibitors, or invited guests from the educational sessions during the official hours of the sessions.

In the event any provision of this agreement is held invalid or unenforceable, then neither the remaining provisions of this agreement or other applications of the provisions involved shall be affected thereby.
