

TriMet Transit Hop Fastpass Information

This pass is good for the duration of your conference on a TriMet bus, the Portland Streetcar or MAX Light Rail in the Portland Metropolitan area. Depending on your selected hotel, you may need this pass to travel to the Oregon Convention Center.

Do not lose this pass. It will not be replaced. If lost, the fare for an adult TriMet pass is $2.50/2-hour ticket or $5.00/1-day.

You must tap your Hop card on the Hop card reader every time you board a bus or enter a train station, including when you transfer. There are Hop card readers located at all MAX stations, on all busses and on the Portland Streetcar. The reader will show a green checkmark and you'll hear a sound confirming that your fare is valid. You must have this pass with you at all times on TriMet transportation. If you do not have this pass or if you forget to tap your card, the fine is $175.

This pass is also good for your TriMet transportation to the airport, provided you are departing before the expiration date on your pass. For information on routes and schedules, check www.trimet.org and www.portlandstreetcar.org.
