

NACADA Speaker Release Form

I voluntarily authorize NACADA: The Global Community for Academic Advising to produce photographs, articles or other promotional content, videotape records, audio recordings, internet web materials, and other visual and/or audio recordings in which I may be included in whole or in part, including my presentations or materials I developed.

NACADA reserves the right to record, use, stream, offer for sale and photograph your presentation at NACADA's Annual Conference and to distribute, broadcast, edit, translate or otherwise disseminate it, without any further approval from you, in totality or in part.

I give my permission to NACADA to release and to show the materials as it deems appropriate, including the sale, release and showing to the general public for publicity and promotion on the internet, or by any other means selected by the NACADA Executive Office. I also consent to having my name identified with the materials if required.

By affirming my intent to participant in this event, I agree to the above.
