

Dear Possible host for the NACADA International Conference,

On behalf of NACADA – The Global Community for Academic Advising, we are seeking proposals to host future international conference.

NACADA is a 13,000 member non-profit association that promotes the educational development of students through quality academic advising. It serves as the professional society for academic advisors, tutors, counselors, faculty and administrators responsible for the academic advising of students at all types of higher education institutions across the globe.

You will find the prospectus for the proposed partnership on the web page as well.

Thank you for considering hosting an International Conference. Let me know if you need any further information after you have read the prospectus. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
The NACADA Executive Office
Rhonda Baker, liaison for International Events
