

REGION 3 AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Award/Scholarship Title: Region 3 Harriett Hurt Memorial Travel Scholarship

Award/Scholarship Description: The Harriett Hurt Memorial Travel Scholarship is presented to a Region 3 NACADA member for volunteer service to Region 3 and NACADA. The Travel Scholarship is dedicated to Harriett in memory of her dedication to NACADA and her legacy of leadership in Region 3.

Harriett Hurt was a role model and inspiration to many. Harriett graduated from Greenville High School (SC) in 1962 and went directly to work. Over the next 35 years she had a colorful life as a singer. Harriett traveled, sang in a band, got married and raised a son. After the tragic death of her son during a robbery, Harriett went to work in a doughnut shop in Columbia, SC. It was during this time that Harriett befriended a customer who was also a USC professor. This professor saw something great in Harriett and kept encouraging her to attend college. Eventually she applied to USC as a 40-year-old freshman where she completed a BA in English and graduated with Honors. Harriett then earned a Masters in English and was hired to work at USC in Adult Student Services. Harriett found her life's calling. Over the years Harriett counseled, encouraged, and sometimes pushed when necessary, many adult students to complete their degrees. She also had an impact on hundreds of traditional aged students by teaching Univ 101 and American Lit for many years. Harriett was a recipient of the USC Ada B. Thomas Staff Academic Advisor Award. She was involved in NACADA as Region 3 Steering Committee Member, South Carolina State Rep, and Region 3 Conference Planning Committee.

Harriett was dedicated to NACADA and often traveled to conferences at her own expense. Harriett passed away unexpectedly in 2014. Her loss was a blow to both USC and the Region 3 families. This award is meant to keep her spirit alive for future Region 3 members.
